500 CLUB

So, what is Harlow Foodbank?

When people have no financial safety net, a sudden crisis, such as bereavement, benefit delay, redundancy or illness, can leave them unable to feed themselves or their family.

Such situations can quickly deteriorate, leading to relationship breakdown, house repossession or worse. Harlow Foodbank works to support people who find themselves on the edge of a crisis.

How does a foodbank work?

Food is donated by the people of Harlow and the surrounding area, which is then sorted by volunteers, and packed into boxes. We partner with front-line care professionals, who identify people in crisis and give them a voucher.

On taking their voucher to a foodbank centre, people receive a warm welcome, a hot drink and a foodbox. We also signpost people with agencies who can help to resolve the underlying causes of the crisis.

What does the 500 club mean?

We are looking to find 500 supporters who can give £2 or more each month to help keep the Harlow Foodbank running, which can then continue to provide people in crisis with a lifeline.

Regular support by standing order means we can plan our work, giving Harlow Foodbank the confidence that comes from regular income.

If you would like to help in this way, please fill in your details below and we can post you a standing order mandate.
